Donating Flowers and Sanctuary Candles to decorate our Altar and Church is a great way to honor our beloved ones!

Caterpillar: Thanks to all parishioners who have fed the hungry caterpillar in the vestibule. Your donations have helped expand the weekend backpack program for school age children in the Wallace-Rose Hill School District and Chinquapin Elementary School. Remember that all your donation goes to provide food for those children who have, through no fault of their own, slipped through the government safety nets and go to school or bed (or both) hungry.

Even though school is out, the Feed the Hungry Children Ministry is preparing for the new school year. Funding needs to be sufficient to support the commitment the Ministry makes to the schools for the weekend backpack and lunch programs.

Checks should be made out to Transfiguration Catholic Church with the annotation Feed Our Hungry Children to be reflected in your annual giving statement. Cash donations are also welcome. Let's really stuff that hungry caterpillar!! Take a copy of the yellow brochure on the credenza in the vestibule or for more information. Or call Julia Callahan or Julie Couch with any questions you may have

Knights of Columbus

Summer is here and there continues to be a food items. While the collecting, the whole with children out of school need for non-perishable Knight do the manual parish is involved. The food is then taken to the Wallace Food Pantry for distribution as needed by the Presbyterian Church. Canned veggies seem to be in plentiful supply for the time being thanks to recent Food Lion sales. Other needed items include cereal, peanut butter, canned meats (chicken, tuna, beef), dried and canned beans, pasta, rice, canned pasta (like Chef Boy-ar-dee) and pasta sauce, diced tomatoes, and canned fruit. Food Lion and Piggly Wiggly often have great sales on these items; watch your local paper. Please also be sure to check "sell" dates to ensure freshness. Thank you for your continuing generosity and your answer to Christ's call to feed those in need. You are a blessing to the Wallace area.

We would like parents to register their children by July 15th to enable us to order the appropriate materials and to have sufficient staff in place to teach the classes. Please fill out the form that will be available outside in a table and return it in the collection basket during the weekend Masses. You may also e-mail the information to franbraks@charter.net.

From the desk of Father Alex: Teaching in Mass about the Mass: Many parish religious education programs host something called a "teaching Mass" which is a Mass during which the priest catechizes about the various parts and aspects of the Mass.

I understand the thinking behind doing a teaching Mass and I applaud pastors who are doing all they can to teach about the Mass. We want children and families to have a better understanding of the liturgy which is at the heart and center of the Christian life. We want to take advantage of the fact that they are present for a Mass to catechize at the same time.

Personally, however, I'm not a big fan of teaching masses. I find them to be much too wordy and tedious. On a deeper level, it is a mixing of actions and moments that each are intended to have their own place. Liturgy is a ritual celebration. When we interrupt ritual to explain it, it is like explaining a joke (or a kiss) to someone. You either get it or you don't. Catechesis is something that is done outside of the liturgy (that's not to say that the liturgy doesn't also catechize by its very nature) so that people "get it." We need to catechize about the Mass in preparation for celebrating it and we need to celebrate the ritual in such a way that the rituals, signs, and symbols are "done" with reverence and robustness so that the very actions teach.

I believe we could do "some" catechesis about the Mass or other doctrinal teaching in our Mass but not make of a whole homily a class. The Mass is filled with potential teachable moments. Pope Benedict XVI said, "The liturgy can be called the permanent catechesis of the Church, the inexhaustible source of catechesis." Often, however, we miss opportunities to maximize the teaching potential of the Mass. There are many ways to teach besides words (or with less words). i.e. the Word of God, Liturgical symbols, the hymns, the gestures, etc.

That's why I am going to venture writing weekly or biweekly an article about what is the Mass and I will try to explain in our bulletin (I urge you all to read it always) the different parts of the Mass.

YEAR OF FAITH Dei Verbum: VI. Sacred Scripture in the Life of the Church Sacrosanctum Concilium This sacred Council has several aims in view: it desires to impart an ever increasing vigor to the Christian life of the faithful; to adapt more suitably to the needs of our own times those institutions which are subject to change; to foster whatever can promote union among all who believe in Christ; to strengthen whatever can help to call the whole of mankind into the household of the Church. The Council therefore sees particularly cogent reasons for undertaking the reform and promotion of the liturgy.

Sacrosanctum Concilium: Introduction- For the liturgy, "through which the work of our redemption is accomplished," most of all in the divine sacrifice of the Eucharist, is the outstanding means whereby the faithful may express in their lives, and manifest to others, the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church. It is of the essence of the Church that she be both human and divine, visible and yet invisibly equipped, eager to act and yet intent on contemplation, present in this world and yet not at home in it; and she is all these things in such wise that in her the human is directed and subordinated to the divine, the visible likewise to the invisible, action to contemplation, and this present world to that city yet to come, which we seek.

Information to be added to the bulletin must be emailed to eileenhirshkind@aol.com by Wednesday 10pm to appear in the upcoming bulletin. If you would like to receive an email copy, please visit www.catholicweb.com or email eileenhirshkind@aol.com
