RESPECT LIFE -

"The so-called right to abortion has pitted mothers against their children and women against men. It has sown violence and discord at the heart of the most intimate human relationships."

---Blessed Mother Teresa, Letter to the U. S. Supreme Court, 1994

Fetal Development of Hannah Tradition teaches us Christ was conceived on the Feast of the Annunciation. We will watch the parallel development of "Hannah" in the womb beginning on March 25 (Feast of the Annunciation) until December 25.

Fetal Development of Hannah : April 13 (week 4)

Hannah's heart started beating 18 days after conception. Hannah may have a different blood type than her mother's. Already Hannah has the foundation for thought, senses, feeling and more. The amniotic sac is now formed and the fluid will cushion Hannah throughout the pregnancy. Hannah has a yolk sac which supplies blood and nutrients until the placenta has developed and is ready to take over.

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you," Jer. 1: 5

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese de Lisieux

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep you priest, Fr. (name the priest), within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch him. Keep unstained his anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied his lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly his heart sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion. Bless his labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom he ministers be his joy and consolation here and in heaven his beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

Pope Francis to Canonize Blessed John XXIII and John Paul II on April 27, 2014, Divine Mercy Sunday

Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II: Beloved Popes

Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II were beloved popes known for their openness, their sense of humor and their humble and generous spirits.

Pope John XXII

One writer said of Pope John XXIII, "There was something about his buoyant personality and self-deprecating humor; his willingness to affirm rather than condemn, that attracted so many to him." Many referred to him as the "Good Pope." Once, visiting a hospital, he asked a boy what he wanted to be when he grew up. The boy said either a policeman or a Pope. "I would go in for the police if I were you," the Holy Father said. "Anyone can become a Pope, look at me!"

But Pope John was not merely funny. As Pope Francis said, "He was holy, patient and especially in calling the Second Vatican Council, a man of courage."

Pope John Paul II

"There are so many YouTube videos of him laughing!" a young woman recently remarked. And like Pope John, he could make others laugh. Known for his brilliant intellect, he once quipped, "Stupidity is also a gift of God, but one mustn't misuse it."

Pope John Paul II's contagious joy came from a courage inspired by trust in God. Perhaps his most famous phrase, which he repeated countless times at World Youth Days, an event he founded, was, "Do not be afraid." And he never was. "Never abandon yourselves to despair," he told one gathering of young people. "We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song!"

Diocese of Raleigh Advance Directive Legal and medical issues related to the planning for the end of life can be complicated and difficult. The Diocese of Raleigh has created a resource which expresses our Catholic teaching about the sanctity and beauty of life, while assisting the faithful in the practical decisions that must be made at the end of life. This Advance Directive document, which includes a Healthcare Power of Attorney with definitions, instructions and the appointment of a health care agent, was prepared in consultation with both Catholic Bioethics and legal experts in the applicable laws of the State of North Carolina. This resource is recommended to you for your use to assist in creating a legal document that reflects your wishes for the end of your own life or that of your loved one. You may download a copy of this document by accessing the following web address: www.dioceseofraleigh.org/how/pro-life/publications.aspx.
