RESPECT LIFE – All of us must care for life, cherish life, with tenderness, warmth...to give life is to open (our) heart, and to care for life is to (give oneself) in tenderness and warmth for others, to have concern in my heart for others. Caring for life from the beginning to the end, what a simple thing, what a beautiful thing..So, go forth and don't be discouraged. Care for life. It's worth it.

Fetal Development of Hannah July (week 17)

I'm getting a little baby fat under my skin. My heart is pumping as much as 6 gallons a day at a rate about double my mom's. I can swim and kick and do somersaults! I'm the same size as my placenta now. I'm not a lightweight anymore – I weigh almost six ounces and I am about three inches long. Mom might be able to hear tiny thumps of Hannah's heartbeat with an external monitor now.

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese de Lisieux

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep you priest, Fr. (name the priest), within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch him. Keep unstained his anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied his lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly his heart sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion. Bless his labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom he ministers be his joy and consolation here and in heaven his beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

Lighthouse: Through the lords mercies we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning, great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:22-23 This past Monday, we had 20 parishioners for our first CD group meeting. There was a very dynamic sharing of thoughts on "Being The Best Version of Yourself" by Matthew Kelly. After the meeting, the group went to dinner at a local restaurant and enjoyed a social evening. Thank you to Sheila and Mark Bertoldi for hosting the evening meeting. Please consider joining our group. Contact Sheila Bertoldi at 410-979-8200. The next meeting is September 8th at 5:30 PM at the church hall with dinner after. Mike Vandiver will be the discussion leader.

From the desk of Fr. Roch...

Dear Parishioners,
We continue reading the Parables from Matthew's Gospel. Jesus explains the Kingdom of God in his attention catching and rather provocative stories. All three parables talk about God's way of doing things... which are somewhat different from "our way" of doing things.

"The Kingdom of God may be likened to a man who went out to sow... good seed." After a while, the workers recognized that along with good wheat, some bad weeds grew as well. The workers eagerly suggest a "quick and easy" solution to the problem – "let us go and pull the weeds out." The master says, "No, don't do anything... let ME handle it... at the appropriate time". The owner says that if they do anything, if they act too quickly, they may actually do more damage than good; that the "secondary effects" of their action may actually do more harm than good in the field. The owner says that what the workers intend to do may actually be a "dangerous procedure." And so he says, "at the time of the harvest I will act."

No doubt Jesus has the judgmental tendencies of the Scribes and Pharisees in mind when he uses this parable. But these parables are also proclaimed to us today, twenty centuries later. The parables that we read today also reminded me of a story I once read on a phenomenon that the author himself called "catholic bullying", in which the author said that we, Catholics, tend way too often to take "justice and judging" in our own hands. Nothing is more hazardous for us humans, than to pass judgment on the relationship of any individual with God.

I think today's gospel passage is asking us to do just the opposite - to be patient, compassionate, loving and understanding; and to refrain from judgments on our own, by our own standards, by what we see "on the outside." Teach us a Lord to be as kind, compassionate, and loving towards others the way you are kind, compassionate, and loving towards us.

Our Knights of Columbus council has been made aware of a need for children's clothing for a family in Rose Hill. A father of 2 is in need of summer clothes for his two girls, ages 6 and 7. He also is caring for two other girls, ages 5 and 11, due to their mother being unable to care for them at this time. The children are presently wearing winter clothing since that is all that they have available.

Clothing required is as follows:

age 7 is a size 7/8 and shoe size is a 1

age 6 is a size 6 with a shoe size of 12/13 shoe size is 13 or 1

age 11 is a size 10-12

age 5 is stocky with a size 6 or 6/7

If you can help, please, bring the clothing to the church or give it to a Knights of Columbus member. A Walmart gift card would be most appreciated as well.

Thank you for your assistance.
