RESPECT LIFE "When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, 'Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the the fruit of your womb.'"

---Luke 1:41-42 (NABRE @2010 CCD. Used with permission.)

Fetal Development of Hannah Tradition teaches us Christ was conceived on the Feast of the Annunciation. We will watch the parallel development of "Hannah" in the womb beginning on March 25 (Feast of the Annunciation) until December 25.

Fetal Development of Hannah December 7 (week 38)

Hannah is now considered full-term but continues to gain and grow every day. Lungs are days from completion. I'm practicing breathing with my amniotic fluid. It is easy to grasp things with Hannah's little fingers. Typically, boys will weigh more than girls at birth. Only 4% of babies are actually born on their due date.

Mom, pack your bags, and don't forget the camera for those all-important pictures of the baby.

"They will see the glory of the Lord, the splendor of our God." (Isaiah 35:2)

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese de Lisieux

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep you priest, Fr. (name the priest), within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch him. Keep unstained his anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied his lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly his heart sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood. Let Your holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion. Bless his labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom he ministers be his joy and consolation here and in heaven his beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen.

You do not need to be present to win. Feel free to sell tickets to your friends and neighbors. Our share of the pot will be used to cover the Religious Retirement Fund assessment and other Parish expenses.

Faith Formation We would like to welcome Jullisa and Aiden, children of Meza C. Mariano and Elizabeth Gasca into the family of Transfiguration of Jesus Catholic Church. Both children were baptized this past weekend. May they both continue to grow in love and faith in their new parish community.

Save the date: Thirty boys and girls will be receiving their First Communion on May 17, 2015. All of these children are working hard learning and growing in their faith. It is wonderful to see such enthusiasm. The Religious Education students are becoming involved in our parish community. One Sunday a month our students are bringing up the gifts at the offertory. Some of them are even learning to be greeters. A few of the Confirmation candidates have volunteered, as part of their community service, to help paint the church hall. All of the classes will be learning about safe environments and how the parish community is always there to help and ensure their safety.

Please recognize and encourage our students as they become integral members of Transfiguration of Jesus Catholic Church.

INVITATION: On Sunday, December 7th, at 7:30PM, the Wilmington String Quartet and organist Vera Coombs join the Friends of the Arts Voices for a free performance of Handel's Messiah. Blessing of the Child in the Womb Bishop Michael F. Burbidge will bless the children in the womb at the 10:45 a.m. Mass at St. Catherine of Siena parish in Wake Forest on December 21, 2014. The Office of Human Life and Dignity and the Office of Divine Worship are encouraging participation in this ceremony, recently released from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, to encourage parish prayers for -- and recognition of -- the precious gift of the child in the womb, and to foster respect for human life within society. If you are expecting a baby and would like to receive this very special blessing from our Bishop, please respond to Christiana at the church office (919) 570-0070.

*God, author of all life,
bless, we pray, this unborn child;
give constant protection and grant a healthy birth that is the sign of our rebirth one day into the eternal rejoicing of heaven...* - excerpt from "Rite for the Blessing of a Child in the Womb."

90th Anniversary Did You Know? Many parishes in our diocese were formed by first being a mission of a neighboring parish. Saint Michael Parish in Cary was a mission of Our Lady of Lourdes in Raleigh. Saint Andrew Parish in Apex was a mission of Saint Michael. This pattern began with the original 21 parishes and 40 missions in our Diocese in 1924. Do you know if your parish was originally a mission or if your parish has sponsored a mission that has become a parish? We give thanks for all who helped the Catholic Church grow in North Carolina. We pray for Grace and that growth continue -
