See Sheila Bertoldi for more information as we get closer to the date.

Bill Lord Tournament for Duplin County Exceptional Children Succeeds-Again!

The 10th Annual Bill Lord Golf Tournament took place at River Landing Golf Club on Tuesday, April 16th. Over 60 Golfers participated in the event which has raised over $50,000 since its inception. Dr. Obasohan, Superintendent of Duplin County Schools welcomed the players and thanked the Knights for their years of support.

Several companies including House of Raeford, Smithfield, Bostic Farms, IT Savvy, and Richard's Building Supply were major sponsors. Many parishioners, despite their personal difficulties following Hurricane Florence, generously contributed their time and resources to this fund raiser.

In fact, Knights of Columbus Council 1074 from St. Mary's Basilica and Council 12017 from St. Mark's, both from Wilmington, sent teams to play and support the Exceptional Children of Duplin County.

Huck Booz, Grand Knight of Council 12921, here at Transfiguration of Jesus Catholic Church, wishes to thank the Parishioners for all their support and help in making this event possible.

Catholic Charities Pitch in for Charity Pitch in for Charity and support Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh by coming to an evening of baseball with the Durham Bulls at the Durham Bulls Athletic Park on Friday, May 17, at 7:05 pm. A portion of every ticket purchased through the Catholic Charities link will support our new Durham Community Food Pantry, which will be holding its official Ribbon Cutting that afternoon. Be sure to stay for fireworks after the game! For more information, please visit www.CatholicCharitiesRaleigh.org/BullsPitch4Charity or contact Daniel Altenau at (919) 821-9767 or at Daniel.Aldenau@raldioc.org.

Come and See – An Invitation from the Padre Pio Secular Franciscans

Has your heart been moved by the prayers, life and stories of St. Francis of Assisi? Would you like to learn more about him and how to live your life with the same holy simplicity, true peace and perfect joy, as he did?

If so, Christ may be calling you to explore the Secular Franciscan life. The Secular Franciscan Order was established by St. Francis of Assisi more than 800 years ago. Our purpose is to bring the Gospel to life where we live and where we work. We look for ways to embrace the Gospel in our lives and try to help others to do likewise.

The Padre Pio Secular Franciscan Fraternity is holding a Come and See on Sunday, September 22, 2019 from 1 – 3 pm. We meet at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 11401 Leesville Road, Raleigh, NC 27613 in the Founders Room

This is an opportunity to hear from other men and women who are living according to the Franciscan rule. Come and see what it's all about. For more information, view our website - <https://ofscentralnc.org/contact-us/> - or send an email message to: ofscentralnc@gmail.com.

Warning: If you receive or have received an email, text message, phone call or any other type of communication that says it is from Father Fernando and they are asking for money in any form, please IGNORE. Several people in our parish have received and continue to receive email requests, that appear to be from Father Fernando asking for money. This is a SCAM. Our priest will not be sending requests for money or any other type of financial assistance. Beware of SCAMS. Thank you.

2019 Homeschool Graduation Mass

Sponsored by ARCH, this year's homeschool graduation Baccalaureate Mass will be held at St. Joseph's on Poole Road on June 8, 2019. Mass will be at 1:00 p.m. with a potluck luncheon/celebration directly following in the Community Room. This Mass will be for high school seniors as well as 8th graders. To register and obtain detailed information, please contact Jennifer Webber at tjtcwebber4@gmail.com.

Marriage Preparation Ministry

Do you have a desire to serve engaged couples as they prepare to enter the sacrament of marriage? We are seeking out individuals and couples who would be interested in serving engaged couples in the parish and diocese by being a part of the One Day Marriage Preparation Workshop Team. There are several roles that you could be a part of including: hospitality, presenting, facilitating, and more. Please contact Rebekah Tolson, Married Life Coordinator, at 919-821-9753 or Rebekah.tolson@raldioc.org

From the Desk of the Parish Historian: DID YOU KNOW that when we became a parish in 2012, two relics were given to us by the Postulator

General in Rome for placement in our altar? A certificate of authenticity accompanied each relic.

The first relic is "a particle from the remains found in the coffin of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton." It is in a "metal case covered by crystal and sealed with the seal of the Office of the Postulator General."

The second relic is "bone fragment" of St. John Neumann. The certificate conveying the relic says the bone fragment is "on a background of red silk encased in a round metal case with a crystal eye, and sealed with the seal of our office."

On April 27-28, the relics will be on display before being re-installed in the altar. A picture of the relics is on the bulletin board in the vestibule. For more information on relics you may be interested in J. Charles Wall's Relics from the Crucifixion and Relics: What They Are and Why They Matter. Both are available from The Catholic Company

Jn 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples.

Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing."

They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord."

When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish.

When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast."

And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs."

He then said to Simon Peter a second time,

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep."

Jesus said to him the third time,

"Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."
