July 7th: First Sunday Breakfast

July 8th: CD Discussion Group @ 530pm

CD Discussion Group: We just had a wonderful gathering on Monday with a new group of wonderful parishioners added with those of us who have been attending the gatherings and have decided to vary our meetings with a new and improved format. For our kickoff meeting we watched the film What Every Catholic Needs to Know about the Bible. It was extremely informative. We had a great group of people for our kickoff and I think it was a successful evening for all.

Our next CD Discussion Group meeting will be held in the Church Hall at 5:30 PM on Monday evening, July 8th. We will be discussing the CD Understanding the Eucharist by Dr. Scott Hahn. The CDs have been ordered and will be available in the kiosk hopefully by Saturday, June 15th. The cost will be $3 each. Please listen to the CDs and possibly be willing to share with the group on July 8th what you learned about the eucharist and how it has affected your life spiritually. The discussion will be led by Bill and Patsy Harran.

Upcoming dates for our Discussion Group meetings will be August 12th and September 9th. Please mark these dates on your calendar. We already have picked some exciting CDs to explore and discuss.

Knights of Columbus- "A Few Good Men"

By Robert J. Sivori, Deputy Grand Knight

Council 12921

"You can't handle the truth!" Colonel Jessep (Jack Nicholson's) responded to Lt. Kaffee (Tom Cruise's) request for the "truth": This line was a powerful statement meant to demean the Colonel's accusers.

The Knights of Columbus at Transfiguration can most certainly handle "truth" even in the face of the Public and Media criticism of the Catholic Church's recent scandals. The truth is that the Catholic Faith does not depend on the actions of mortal men, but on the belief that Jesus Christ suffered and died to give us the path to "Sainthood".

If that sounds grandiose for us, simple Catholics, it is the "truth". Are the Knights of Columbus, Saints? Hardly, we struggle with the same conflicts and pitfalls that all humans experience throughout our lives. However, we also tend to address the "issues" which others may ignore.

We react to the scandals in the Church with our belief that Christ told us that we would suffer if we chose His path. St. Paul told the Colossians: "Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church."

The Knights choose to "handle" the "truth" of human suffering by tending to the needs of the "Least Of My Brethren". We are trying to be "A Few Good Men" working for the betterment of others. And, we could use some help from a few more "Good Catholic Men" from the Transfiguration of Jesus Catholic Church. Come join us!

Tribunal The Raleigh Tribunal is seeking bi-lingual men and women who are willing to assist individuals seeking a declaration of nullity of a prior marriage. Our Tribunal is in particular need of those who are bilingual in Spanish and Vietnamese. A compassionate ear and the ability to maintain strict confidentiality are the main requirements. There will be three training sessions – two in July and one in August – at the Catholic Center. Attendance at all three sessions is required.

For more information about training and dates, please call or e-mail Mrs. Vikki Newell (919-821-9759; Vikki.Newell@raldioc.org) no later than July 12, 2019.

Please help feed our local residents.

The Knights of Columbus collect food for our local food pantry benefiting Wallace residents. Going into summer, with children at home, the need is greater than ever. Following is just a suggested list, but any non-perishable food items are very much appreciated. Drop off your donation at Transfiguration and the Knights will deliver to the food pantry. Thank you for your generosity.

June	Rice and beans
July	Peanut butter & jelly
August	Cereal

The national collection date for the Peter's Pence Collection is the weekend of June 29-30, 2019.

History

The Peter's Pence Collection derives its name from an ancient custom. In ninth-century England. King Alfred the Great collected money, a "pence," from landowners as financial support for the Pope. Today, the Peter's Pence Collection supports the Pope's philanthropy by giving the Holy Father the means to provide emergency assistance to those in need because of natural disaster, war, oppression, and disease.

Lk 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here."

He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people." Now the men there numbered about five thousand. Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty." They did so and made them all sit down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Religious Freedom Week 2019: Strength in Hope

In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that "the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us" (Rom. 8:18).
